

Art Work

Art for Washington D.C. and the State Capitol buildings is selected through the North Country Museum of Art Show held in Park Rapids annually.

- 1983 Ken Edwards won first place and his art work was sent to Washington, D.C.
- 1985 Ed Glogowski won 1st place and his watercolor artwork, “Nevis Café”, went to Washington, D.C.
- 1986 Lisa Johnson won 1st place and her black and white drawing, “Shining Star”, went to Washington, D.C.
- 1987 Rick Lundsten won 2nd place and his art work hung in the office of Congressman Arlan Stangeland
- 1989 Jason Wolff won 1st place and his colored pencil drawing went to Washington, D.C.
- 1990 Nathan Hintz won 2nd place and his artwork hung in the office of Congressman Arlan Stangeland
- 1991 Sheila Longfors art was selected to hang in Washington, D.C.
- 1992 Jeremy Alberg’s art was selected to hang in Congressman Collin Peterson’s office in Washington, D.C..
- 1993 Jeff Benson’s art was selected to hang in Washington, D.C.
- 2006 Kayla Dannheim’s art advanced to the Minnesota State High School League (MSHSL) state competition (1st year of competition)
- 2007 Erich Allman’s art advanced to MSHSL state competition.
- 2008 Jesse McLaren’s art advanced to MSHSL state competition.
- 2010 Rachel Grider’s art advanced to MSHSL state competition.

1983 Ken Edwards center with Pamela Teslow left and Mary Beth Megarry right
Photo courtesy of Northwoods Press

1989 Jason Wolff
Photo courtesy of Northwoods Press

1990 Nathan Hintz's painting being held by Congressman Arlan Stangeland
Photo courtesy of Northwoods Press

1992 Representative Tony Kinkel,
Jeremy Alberg, and Congressman Collin Peterson
Photo courtesy of Northwoods Press

1993 Jeff Benson

2007 Erich Allman

2008 Jesse McLaren

2010 Rachel Grider