
TruStar Federal Credit Union Scholarship Program

This scholarship program was designed to recognize scholastic achievement among its young members and to provide assistance with the cost of attending college or other higher education.

The deadline for application is Thursday, April 23, 2015.

Requirements for Application

- ❑ Must be a member of TruStar Federal Credit Union in his or her own name.
- ❑ Any student who lives in Koochiching, Hubbard, Beltrami and Wadena Counties is eligible to apply for a scholarship.
- ❑ Must be a graduating senior.
- ❑ Must provide school records to show merit.
- ❑ Must have a GPA of 3.5 or higher.
- ❑ Must provide letter of acceptance to college or technical institution of choice.
 - Or letter of intent with acceptance letter provided before disbursement of funds.
- ❑ Must provide a brief 100- to 300- word essay describing why the student believes that he or she is deserving of a TruStar-sponsored scholarship. Students are encouraged to include mention of their plans for a major in college (if known) and career aspirations.

The TruStar Federal Credit Union Scholarship Committee will process applications and make selection-related decisions. All decisions are final. Award money will be sent directly to the school. If any student chooses not to enroll in school for any reason, an alternative recipient will be chosen.
